

Student creed

I intend to develop myself in a positive manner and to avoid anything that might reduce my mental growth or physical strength

I intend to develop self-discipline in order to bring out the best in myself and others

I intend to use what I learn in class constructively and defensively to help myself my fellow man and never to be abusive or offensive